

Times Leader, The (Wilkes Barre, PA) SITE SHOWS WHERE THE BARGAINS CAN BE FOUND

October 15, 2001

Senior discounts often get passed along by word of mouth, but a Web site (www.SeniorDiscounts.com) can clue you in to what's available in your town and beyond.

SeniorDiscounts.com boasts more than 61,000 discounts in the United States and Canada for people over 50. The easy-to-use site allows users to search by city and state.

Categories listed include airlines, auto services, retail, restaurants, movie theaters, golf courses and ski areas.

A search for restaurants in Wilkes-Barre turned up a listing of 11 restaurants, with their addresses, phone numbers and the discount offered.

The site operators out of Albuquerque, N.M., say the national chains are easy to add to their database, but local stores and businesses are a little more tricky. For that reason they rely on input from shoppers to update the site with discounts they've found. The site also produces a newsletter.

- Jerry Lynott
